ORAL JUDGEMENT

Being aggrieved by the decision rendered by the learned Single Judge (Coram: R.M. Doshit, J.) in Spl.

C.A. No. 10645 of 1996, the appellant has preferred this appeal.

2. The petitioner has approached the trial Court and has obtained ad-interim injunction against the order of termination; It appears that the said suit is pending. Thereafter the petition is filed in this Court.

3. Before the learned Single Judge, the petitioners contended that though the petitioners' name were sponsored by the Employment Exchange and after having been interviewed and screened by the Selection Committee, they were selected for the post of Peon. However, we find from the judgement of the learned Single Judge that the petitioners were not selected for the post of Peon but were merely placed on the wait list. Learned Single Judge has observed, and rightly so, that the petitioners do not have right to appointment merely on account of their selection or placement in the wait list.

4. In the result, we find no substance in this appeal, and the same stands dismissed summarily. Consequently, the Civil Application does not survive and the same stands disposed of accordingly.
